Apple Professional Development
Apple offers onsite, hands-on workshops tailored to your school or district's specific needs. These workshops are designed to help you use your Apple products to transform teaching and learning.
Taught by educators for educators. All Apple Professional Development Specialists are current or former educators, which gives them a personal understanding of teaching and learning with technology. Because they know what's important in the curriculum, they can ensure that you learn about your Apple products and how they can best serve you and your students. We offer workshops in the following categories:
Foundations: Focused on technology skills, these foundational workshops help teachers become confident and comfortable integrating Apple products into their teaching strategies.
Curriculum: These workshops focus on curricula, content design, and instruction with all Apple products.
